Augusta Centennial Hall is celebrating its 30th year anniversary

Augusta Centennial Hall was rebuilt in 1991 into today’s multi-function hall on the site of the original Augusta town hall which was built sometime in the 1950s. Some great framed photos of the anniversary with the hall rebuild and some original paperwork is being showcased at the Hall foyer area.

“Special thanks to the people of Augusta and surrounding districts for their generosity in bringing this building project to such a satisfying conclusion” Augusta Centennial Hall Committee of 1990/91.

Leeuwin Lines

The visit by District Governor Stephen Berry

provided the opportunity to present medallions to founding Charter President Dr John Williams, Jim Challis & David Watterson recognising their valuable service over 50 years to Lions.

In DG Stephen Berry's address to members he raised the issues that many service clubs throughout the state are facing in retaining & attracting new members and volunteers. The challenge is for clubs to find a format that suits the demographics of the area & not necessarily to be locked into the traditional formats such as twice monthly Dinner Meetings etc.

A sausage sizzle was enjoyed on Saturday 2nd October to celebrate the first anniversary of the Container Deposit

President Jim Challis, DG Stephen Berry and Charter President Dr John Williams

Scheme where over 800,000 containers were processed in the first 12 months. This returned $80,000 back into the community with the 10c returned to depositors and with the 6c per container earned from WARRL (State Govt body) for processing / sorting the containers. This has allowed Leeuwin Lions to pay for the upgrade / refurbishment of the shed to efficiently process the containers, purchase a new forklift and have funds available to distribute to Lions' causes.

There are typically as many as eleven volunteers working in the CDS shed on Thursday & Saturday mornings – many of whom are not financial members of Lions but very valuable Lions Volunteers. It is worth noting that most other Container Deposit operations are run by private individuals or commercial operations.

Shed Boss and prime instigator of the CDS – Phill Robinson addressing the gathering

Thank you & well done Lions volunteers.

Planning is afoot to build a new shed or modify/ expand existing ones to accommodate a new kitchen /smoko room and office / storeroom for Lions' memorabilia. This will be a staged approach but sorely needed with the number of participants volunteering their time servicing Lions' causes.

Peter Keppel & his team have already split and stacked next year's firewood (it's worth a look). This year's firewood deliveries totalled 49 tonnes and with the changes to the logging of old growth forests it is anticipated that firewood will become more difficult to obtain & hence more expensive. As a precaution Peter has ordered an additional load for processing next year – a bit more exercise for Andy Butcher who insists upon splitting 80 rounds per day by hand for his daily exercise!

Peter Keppel also doubles up as our OH&S manager, working with Carmel Norris from the CRC and advises that there are a number of changes forthcoming in the new year for volunteers. More to come.

Margaret Martin has again being busy propagating the flowering plants for the Streetscape Ladies to 'Pink Up Augusta'.

The commemorative service held for Lion Margaret Dawes was well attended by Leeuwin Lions reflecting the valuable contribution made by Margaret to Lions' and the broader community. It is also worth noting the contribution to Lions & the broader community by her late husband Barry – most notable was his perseverance in obtaining all the necessary approvals to build the disabled fishing platform at Dead Finish.

Making a contribution to the container deposit scheme

Notable recent donations to Leeuwin Lions causes include

- $10,000 to River Angels supporting families with cancer
- $2,500 to Augusta Primary School for Australian Reading Spine
- $2,500 to the Bike Ride supporting Childhood Leukemia & Cancer research
- Firewood & forthcoming donation supporting Keith Munday's childhood support for Asthma
- $1,000 to Augusta CWA – supporting 'the needy families basket'

Lions & Lions Partners who are not at full strength: Lion Clint Van Roon – still confined to Fiona Stanley Hospital due to a grave infection caused by a cut that turned septic. He is having a tough time of it and our thoughts go out to him.

Others who receive our best wishes include Helen McKenzie and those who remain on the rehab list that includes Ron Shore, Trevor Earl & Ron Brearley.

Augusta has talent! And how! What a splendid display of woodwork greeted you as you walked in the door this weekend at Augusta's iconic Spring Show. And who would have thought, after the wild weather of last week, that we'd have any blooms at all. Well, this is Augusta and we know how to put on a great Show! There's still that Wow factor as you enter the main hall.

"Absolutely fabulous, such a creative, friendly Show", "Very impressive exhibitions ... welcoming and friendly people smiling" are just a couple of the accolades recorded in our Visitors' Book.

To enter the Hall and be greeted by such a colourful spectacle seemed extra special after such a long cold wet winter.

For the second year we had a stall outside selling preserves, plant cuttings and some garden produce. The proceeds, an amazing $1,000, will be donated to the Royal Flying Doctor Service.

Thank you to the Augusta Newsagency for distributing schedules and taking in the entries, the Lions Club for the sponsorship of our new t-shirts and use of their tables, the Karridale Primary and Augusta Primary schools for their delightful displays, and all our raffle donors.

Thank you to all the volunteers who worked really hard over the weekend, and the exhibitors, who put together such an all-encompassing, awesome Spring Show. This really is an all-community event.

CWA ladies have certainly had a very interesting time in the past month. Our President Leanne Bamford was in charge of formulating a roster of 70 volunteers for 8 days at the Royal Show as she was on the Perth Royal Show CWA Committee, she worked on both "Time for Tea" and "Promotional" stands at the Show. Members from different Branches provided thousands of biscuits for Time for Tea, on the Promotional stand there were cookbooks, scone books, tea towels, aprons, carry bags and CWA history books for sale. Leanne reported that she thoroughly enjoyed the experience and had a wonderful time meeting so many inspiring women within the CWA Association. The objective of the show is to promote the CWA to a wider community and to attract more members.

At our Meeting on Wednesday 6th, we were delighted to have Heather Lowe-Sims from Oriel Gallery Karridale demonstrate all types of Art, so we could participate in the "Augusta Intergenerational Art Project". She showed us some of the works others had done which was extremely interesting particularly the different themes and how they looked after seeing strips of material, all sorts of wool, felt, ribbon, cottons, beads, net with silver and gold threads, plus other types of things you could use. What a fabulous hobby for one to learn. (No time for Covid.) Some of us decided we would go to a workshop at the CWA hall on Tuesday 12th, only 4 of us attended, what fun it was to make a small picture about 12cmx12cm out of so many different materials etc that Heather supplied. Yes! We did make a few mistakes but Heather came to the rescue and quickly explained and helped us fix the mistake!! We did knitting, crocheting, other odd things, plus gluing! What a sticky work of art that was, particularly the fingers trying to get bits to stick.

A huge thank you to the Leeuwin Lions Club for their generous donation of $1,000 for our "Project Care".

Bill Perry presenting Linda with the Lions cheque

After Months of "No Markets" as mentioned in the previous P.P. we are now preparing to have a big "Christmas Mini Market" on Saturday 27th November, we might even persuade Father Christmas to make a special early trip to Augusta! There has already been a lot of interest from previous stall holders.

If you would like to know more about CWA, you are very welcome to join us and enjoy the company at our meetings and outings. Our afternoon teas after meetings are always fun with even a couple of jokes thrown in for good measure and the chit chat is always entertaining.

If you would like to hire the CWA Hall for a function or gathering, please contact us on our email cwainaugusta@gmail.com

Hint of the day!! Tomato juice will remove wine or fruit stains. 32nd edition CWA Cookery Book and household hints.

The Book of Job

By STEWART MCPHEARSON

We have recently been reflecting on the Book of Job. In 1985 I was in Poland and went to Auschwitz. Later, I visited the Holocaust Museum in Jerusalem. In both places I was reminded powerfully of “Night”, by Elie Wiesel, a survivor of the Auschwitz concentration camp. In it he describes a desperate fellow Jew being shot dead on the barbed wire. Someone asks “where is God” and another replies “On the wire, with our dead friend”.

The 6 million Jews murdered by the Nazis would have known the Book of Job. Can Job suggest an answer to the terrible question of where was God when six million Jews were murdered?

The problem has been discussed for millennia: namely, if there is an all-powerful, all-knowing and benevolent God then why do bad things happen in the world? For more than 70 years this question has been discussed in relation to the Holocaust in a simple question: “Where was God at Auschwitz?” Where was God when six million Jews, including one million children, were murdered?

There are, broadly, two schools of thought: that God allows free will to exist (however painful) or that the Holocaust is indeed a form of punishment. I believe, as do many others, that the idea of the Holocaust as an act of punishment by God is obscene. We must reject totally the idea that Hitler could be part of any Divine Plan and that such terrible suffering could emanate from God. Theologians claim that in Nazi Germany God had to withdraw, whatever the consequences, to allow humanity to exercise free will.

We are left, like Job, wondering why terrible things happen to innocent people: for many survivors the idea of losing all members of their family, their worldly possessions and their dignity is not theoretical. For those people this results in several responses: ranging from spiritual renewal to rejection; to devoting their lives to bettering the world, to self-destruction as is the case of many who sadly could not cope with the guilt of surviving when their families perished.

Job does give an answer of sorts. We are left in the midst of a divine mystery. If we can find the strength to reaffirm God, to question our ways of life and shed the arrogance of surety then we can like Job rebuild our lives, our communities, our institutions. This reaffirming act of faith is a symbol of hope.

To quote Ernest Levy, a concentration camp survivor, “If there is no faith in humanity, then there is no point in having faith in God”.

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH TO REMEMBER THEM...

On 11 November 1918, the guns of the Western Front fell silent after four years of continuous warfare. With their armies retreating and close to collapse, German leaders signed an Armistice, bringing to an end the First World War. From the summer of 1918, the five divisions of the Australian Corps had been at the forefront of the allied advance to victory. Beginning with their stunning success at the battle of Hamel in July, they helped to turn the tide of the war at Amiens in August, followed by the capture of Mont St Quentin and Pèronne, and the breaching of German defences at the Hindenburg Line in September. By early October the exhausted Australians were withdrawn from battle. They had achieved a fighting reputation out of proportion to their numbers, but victory had come at a heavy cost. They suffered almost 48,000 casualties during 1918, including more than 12,000 dead.

In the four years of the war more than 330,000 Australians had served overseas, and more than 60,000 of them had died. The social effects of these losses cast a long shadow over the post-war decades.

Each year on this day Australians observe one minute’s silence at 11am, in memory of those who died or suffered in all wars and armed conflicts.

Why not visit your Museum this month and see all the amazing historical displays including the commemoration of Australian men and women who died or suffered in all wars and armed conflicts.

The Augusta Historical Society Inc.

The October 2021 meeting was held on Thursday 21st October in the Society’s room. There was a reasonable attendance including a group visiting from the Margaret River Historical Society and one guest.

Our Guest Speaker was Emeritus Professor Richard Read from the school of design at the University of Western Australia. Richard is also an art historian and his topic was on one particular painting by Thomas Turner of the Blackwood River, painted perhaps from somewhere near the settlement and near where the Turner Caravan Park is at the present time.

Thomas Turner was a son of James Woodward Turner who was among the group of first settlers who arrived on the Emily Taylor in 1830. Thomas Turner was sixteen when they arrived but he had an extensive education in England before the family came to Western Australia. He proved to be an artist of some talent and his paintings demonstrated the changes made to the settlement over the following years after their arrival.

Professor Read has spent time around Augusta including time in a canoe trying to identify where the series of paintings were done and whether changes to the tree images and the shoreline were because Thomas Turner was trying to portray something other than just a record of an area.

There has been an exhibition of Thomas Turner’s paintings at the Art Gallery of Western Australia where Professor Read was able to fully appreciate the scale of the paintings and the skill of the artist to demonstrate the type of country the little settlement was trying to farm.

Copies of some of Thomas Turner’s paintings are in the Augusta Museum. At one stage we also had some of the originals but they have now been sent to the Art Gallery of Western Australia.

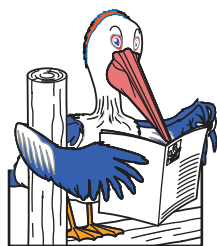

We thanked Professor Read for his very comprehensive paper on the paintings of Thomas Turner and the research results he was able to share with us.

The next meeting of the Augusta Historical Society will be on Thursday 18th November at 7.00pm. No Guest Speaker has been arranged as yet but an email will be circulated closer to the date. Remember if you are a lapsed member you can rejoin by paying last year’s subscriptions plus the current one which is due now. $10 per year for a single membership or $15 per year for a couple.

The maintenance upon Zoom has been completed & she has been returned to duties locally & also travelled to Denmark and Lake Dumbleyung. The raid to Denmark along with RFBYC was to support the emerging Denmark Community Rowing Association who are busily raising funds to build two St Ayles Skiffs . The highlights included very scenic rowing on the Denmark River and they hosted ‘a boisterous sea shanty’ evening at a local boat builders yard.

With Denmark building two skiffs, within the next 18 months – two years, there is every possibility of some 10 -12 St Ayles Skiffs in WA which augurs well for a series of regattas etc throughout the state & here on the Blackwood River.

Zoom resplendent on the Denmark River

RFBYC's Ripple & Augusta's Zoom arriving at the Denmark Skiffs fund raiser

The raid to Lake Dumbleyung over the 9th October weekend was a different experience, rowing upon a lake some 15 kms long & 5 kms wide surrounded by very healthy wheat & canola crops. The last time the lake had a body of water in it was 2017 and prior to the rain events this year you could walk across the lake.

Hosting the weekend was Christine & Phil Bairstow providing camping facilities on their farm and were excellent tour guides into the geography & history of the surrounds. A feature of Dumbleyung & its lake was the setting of the world water speed record in 1964 by the late Donald Campbell in his craft the "Bluebird" – of which there is a replica model to size in a display pavilion commemorating the event and which the Bairstow family had a great deal to do with.

Construction of the Acorn 17 continues slowly with the effort being put in to returning Zoom to rowing duties and a prompt turnaround on Colour Patch. Colour Patch should be returned to rowing at about the time of publishing.

The new Croker macon shaped oars have finally been ordered with an 8-week delivery, so they should be here late November/early December depending upon the state of the transport industry as they are coming from Northern NSW.

The Rowers joined in the Intergenerational Community Art project lead by Heather Lowe-Sims which she hosted at her gallery with much fun & frivolity. From the feedback it would appear the participants are relatively smug about their artistic flair. Keep the 12th November free for the art auction at the Augusta Hotel.

Other events planned / underway are

- Weekend of 19th November - Coastal Rowing Club from Bunbury have booked the camp at the Lions Adventure Centre & are bringing down 7 coastal rowing skulls & are looking for us to join in with them . These are single scull carbon fibre craft with sliding seats & no transom – details to follow
- Friday 26th November 5:30pm at the Augusta Yacht Club the AGM, followed by a Sundowner – Keep a watch for on your emails for details and if you are interested in nominating for committee – we'll need a Treasurer as Sue has indicated work has now got too busy.
- 3rd December – Delivery of Father Christmas to the CCI Christmas Carols – Crew required & Father Christmas appears to be regaining his health for another repeat appearance.
- Maybe 4th December – Augusta Community Rowing Day at Turner Street Jetty – to be confirmed
- River Festival (Long Weekend March 2022) – planning upon the River Festival Regatta endeavouring to encourage / coerce a competition between the emergency responders, sporting groups (Sea Search & Rescue, Ambos, Firies, Yachties etc)

Those interested in rowing and /or becoming involved in wooden boat building please do not hesitate to contact Heather (0447 576669) or Bill (0400 750967) – interest from groups and organisations is most welcome – age, fitness or skill levels are not barriers to rowing these amazingly easy to row boats. Keep a watch on our website - augustarowers.org.au - for upcoming events, check out the photo gallery on the website & Facebook, recycle your drink bottles & cans to our account – many thanks to those who donate to our account.

HEAD Keelan Robert

Louise Blechynden writes: On behalf of myself, Megan and family I would like to thank everyone who has given us so much support over the past year since we lost our Keelan Rob. The messages, gifts, visits from family, friends, co-workers and the Augusta-Karridale community has meant the world to us - Keelan will never be forgotten which to us is the most important thing of all.

Busy Bee

We had an overdue Busy Bee recently. Two of the nets needed repair, so we had to take them off and put two others up. The way nets are held up is a black art - one of them was secured with a padlock, the key for which had long since vanished. George was undaunted - a pair of bolt-cutters did the job.

Also the hard courts were covered with areas of black mould, the result of a long wet winter. Muzz soon had the troops organised, buckets of chlorine and much water were applied, and then given the stiff broom treatment. Some of us were feeling our age after a couple of hours hard labour. Meanwhile Carmel had volunteered for a special project round the back. What's more Carmel had baked some Danish pastries, which went down very well with a cup of coffee.

The heavy mob - Mike, Scott, Muzz, Des, George, Bob, Jimmy.
And an empty plate where once were pastries

The President returns

Murray and Ann returned from a five-month camping trip round WA, SA and NT. We'd heard regular reports from them on their travels - it's a wonder they had time to drive anywhere, it seems a lot of time was spent socialising and checking out local haunts. We've missed Annie's quiet unassuming ways, and Muzz looks wilder than he did when he left.

Murray, Annie, Steve, Alison

Louise and Jimmy (of course)

Trapeze Louise

Louise Moss made a happy return to the Club for the summer. She is a mainstay of the Karridale Lunar Circus every January. Except it didn't happen this year, because of Covid. Hopefully it will return in 2022. Welcome back Louise!

AGM

The AGM will be held on Saturday 20th November at 1pm - note BEFORE Tennis. At this meeting the Rules (Constitution) regarding the formation of the new Augusta Tennis and Croquet Club will be discussed This is a landmark event for both Clubs. We look forward to seeing many members there. A BYO BBQ will follow tennis and croquet.

BOOK FAIR FUN

Book Fair at our school is a good excuse to dress up as a favourite book character and have fun! Some people raided their closets, others got a little crafty, to create some truly inspired costumes.

Some of the protagonists who made an appearance included (pictured left) The Very Hungry Caterpillar from Eric Carle's bestselling picture book, The Ace of Diamonds from Alice in Wonderland, Lucky from Spirit Riding Free and Ariel.

Every "character" had their time to shine on stage at the presentation parade. Each character gave the audience three clues about their identity, and the audience had to guess who they were. The character clues were ad lib and the confidence shown by all the children from Pre-primary to Year 6 in delivering them was really impressive!

ON COURT ACTION

Our Pre-primary to Year 6 children started tennis lessons in the first week of Term 4 with Pablo Gomez of Margaret River Tennis Academy. The children are no strangers to tennis, or to Pablo, as most of them have been involved in lessons at our school for several years with Pablo and Laura. The children's skill level improves every year, and so does their love of the game! Our courts are used a lot throughout the year!

Eight lessons will run over eight weeks and are provided to students for free as our school was successful in winning a Sporting Schools Grant from Sport Australia.

SUPER SPECIAL FUNDRAISER

Batman, Superman, Aquaman and many other super friends flew into our school on scooters on their annual Superkids Superheroes fundraising tour for the Kids' Cancer Project. This charity is dedicated towards finding new treatments and research into all childhood cancers.

The Superkids Superheroes scooter ride is an eight day and 600km challenge. Our school always loves meeting our visitors, dressing up to support them and donating to this very worthy cause.

This year our school raised $92 for the Kids' Cancer Project through gold coin donations. We look forward to hosting Superkids Superheroes again next year!

FREE DRESS FOR SHELTERBOX

ShelterBox is an international disaster relief organisation. It is made up of people who believe in shelter as a human right, that shelter from the chaos of disaster and conflict is vital. Everyday, cyclones, landslides, earthquakes, floods and conflict tear homes and families apart. This is why ShelterBox teams work to deliver shelter 365 days of the year.

To show our support for ShelterBox Australia, a free dress day has been organised for Friday 24 September. Students came to school in their favourite clothes for a gold coin donation. Our donations were sent to ShelterBox Australia to help support the wonderful work they do for families all over the world.

SCHOOL BREAKFAST CLUB

Staff at Augusta Primary School acknowledge that breakfast is one of the most important meals of the day, particularly for growing children. With that in mind, we are excited to announce that the School Breakfast Club Program has arrived at our school!

The program started on Monday 25 October, and our Breakfast Club operates every morning from 8:00am to 8:50am.

In partnership with Foodbank WA, the program provides healthy meals to help students focus better and participate fully in their education.

Our School Breakfast Club aims to ensure students start the day with a healthy meal, to improve concentration, to help students make friends and develop strong social connections. It is also envisaged that the Breakfast Club will improve student attendance, punctuality, behaviour and, ultimately, academic achievement.

Breakfast Club is freely available to all students. Our aim is to improve nutrient intake and academic, social and emotional outcomes through the consumption of a healthy breakfast.

Our School Breakfast Club is a wonderful opportunity for staff and volunteers to have a positive impact on the lives of our students, so that they may connect with the local community in a warm and welcoming environment.

CONSTABLE CARE

On 19 October, students from Kindergarten to Year 6 were treated to a live performance from the Constable Care program. The program is completely free of charge thanks to the fantastic partnership with the WA Police.

Through puppet theatre and live interactive performances Constable Care's team of professional actors address a range of personal and community safety and citizenship themes that entertain, engage, challenge and educate, giving students the life skills they need to assess risk, make safe choices and grow into confident, emotionally intelligent adults.

Our Kindy to Year 3 students experienced the 'Fun Scary' performance. Through puppetry and song, this performance teaches students the difference between scary things that are fun (like going down a slide) and those scary things that we need to tell a trusted adult about. This performance has proven to be an ideal way to present the key concepts of protective behaviours to young students in an engaging and non-threatening way.

Our Year 4/5/6 students were treated to 'Trending', a performance that explores the potential dangers of social media. It helps young people understand the importance of online respect and consent, as well as the consequences of trolling, online abuse and sending private pictures. Through interactive playbacks the students collaborated to solve common problems facing young people online.

KINDY 2022 – ENROL NOW!

If you have a child, or know someone who has a child, who was born between 1 July 2017 and 30 June 2018, then now is the time to enrol in the Augusta Primary School Kindergarten program. Please visit the school office to enrol and please bring your child's birth certificate and immunisation records. Parents are urged to enrol as soon as possible. Knowing student numbers early is important to our planning and critical to our staffing allocation for next year.

Heather Lowe – Sims artist from Oriel Gallery has been working with the many community groups in Augusta to create art work that will be exhibited at the Augusta Hotel Friday 12th November at 6 pm.

On Tuesday 21st of October, Heather arrived with bags of wool, yarn, buttons and threads. We spent the afternoon knitting, crocheting, gluing and cutting, having a wonderful creative time. We were all surprised how lovely our finished project was once placed in a frame. It is going to be an amazing display and we're all looking forward to seeing the various groups and their art work on display at the hotel.

Spinners working with Heather

Our sock knitting ladies are well known for their wool socks. Lisa and Tim, who have purchased many socks gifted a book titled "52 weeks of Socks" to the spinners' group. A great read and of interest to us all. Thank you.

We meet every Tuesday 10.30am – 4pm and Thursdays 7.00 pm -10pm in the club rooms at the Centennial Hall.

Calling Scott River Farmers! Apply Now for Fencing & Revegetation Support

As part of the State NRM Funded project Scott River Action Plan Implementation Strategy and on-ground action' there is currently funding support available for Scott River landholders to undertake on-farm reveg either to improve riparian (waterways and wetlands) areas or to increase biodiversity on the farm, improve remnant vegetation and provide native shelter belts.

EOIs are now open for landholders in the 'Four Acres' Sub-catchment in Scott River. To find out more about the project and the eligibility criteria contact the LCDC's Reveg Officer Andrew Hemsley at E: andrew.hemsley@lowerblackwood.com.au | M: 0422 353 778

For the rest of the catchment, we have allocated all our revegetation funding for the year however there is still funding available for fencing, so give Andrew a call to discuss.

Seeds Are In the Ground!

With soils warming up and more rain on the horizon, last weekend was the perfect opportunity to get the seed into the ground at our first Pasture Biodiversity Project (<https://lowerblackwood.com.au/pasture-biodiversity-to-build-soil-health-resilience-in-the-lower-blackwood>) demo site.

The site, located in Rosa Glen, was dry enough to get the tractor on, and was prepared for seeding with some intensive grazing and once over with a flail mower. The sheep have been allowed back onto the site for a few more days prior to germination to keep the existing pasture as short as possible & reduce competition.

Seeding Practical Details:

- Seeding Method: Direct Drill
- Seed Mix: Millet, Field Peas, Cow Peas, Buckwheat, - Sunflower, Turnip, Lucerne, White Clover, Chicory, Phacelia
- Seed Preparation: Seeds were mixed then a biological simulant coating applied using a concrete mixer.
- Seed Coating: Compost extract, molasses, milk, soft rock phosphate, liquid seaweed, seeder starter trace minerals

What's bugging my Pittosporum?

November 2021
Adult Pittosporum bugs and nymph (far right) breeding and feeding on a damaged Pittosporum plant.

Speckled sap suckers

With summer just around the corner, it's time to look out for these notorious, native bugs on your Pittosporum plants: Pseudapines geminata or the 'Pittosporum bug'. These bugs are come from a large family of shield bugs called Pentatomidae. As their common name suggests, these speckled sap-sucking insects feed primarily on Pittosporum plants but occasionally love to munch on our very own native bluebell creepers and Rottnest Island pine.

Pittosporum is a genus of flowering shrubs native to Australia, New Zealand and some parts of Asia and South Africa. Despite each Pittosporum plant species usually having a shield bug species that is specific to them, the most common Pittosporum bug species we see around in WA is Pseudapines geminata across all Pittosporum plant species.

Did you know?

The relationship between the Pittosporum bug and its Pittosporum host plant is complex and symbiotic (meaning a close, long-term biological interaction between two different organisms). The wingless nymphs (juvenile form) of these bugs resemble the black sticky seeds of the Pittosporum plant, which also serve as an important food source for the nymphs and adults. When the shield bugs are predated upon by birds, these seeds stick to the birds and are carried away, aiding seed dispersal and subsequent propagation of the Pittosporum plant! In cases of insects mimicking their food source (seeds), the bugs that most resemble the seeds are harder to find by the predators and therefore will not be eaten.

Critter Control – If Needed

Pittosporum bugs can quickly build up to large numbers and cause serious damage to your Pittosporum shrubs if not controlled early. With regards to control, there are several organic options which target these sap-sucking insects including pest oils and soaps, however for severe infestations, a systemic insecticide may be needed to get them under control.

Got unfamiliar pests bugging your plant? Take photos, record the plant species and report it!

We meet every Monday morning from 9.30 am to discuss and develop inspirational ideas and to work together in the garden. Visitors and new members are welcome.

By the late Kerry Inwood

"What is the factor, the quality, most missing from the lives of most people today? Is it peace? What if a small oasis of peace could be found, could be set up in our town, in the very centre of our town? We are, in fact, halfway towards the establishment of such a place when we consider a community garden in the centre of the town, at the Uniting Church.

Surely, this attractive and appealing site would be a drawcard to the many people who seek a place of peace in their lives where they can pursue interests of a horticultural nature or alternatively, nothing more than somewhere beautiful, relaxing and peaceful to while away an hour or two.

Those of us who know the peace of God in our lives know how precious and highly prized it is, so what better place to seek it and find it than in a small corner of His great creation in the southwest of this vast continent.

This is how I perceive this community garden in the Uniting Church grounds in Augusta, the dream that would spur me on to its establishment.

President Wendy and 3 other Augusta members travelled to Peppermint Grove Beach Art Group on the 22nd September to participate in the annual Critique Day which is open to many clubs and groups in the South West. Wendy reports that it was a most successful and enjoyable day with excellent critiquing giving valuable insight to the many fine artworks presented.

A couple of days later Heather Lowe-Sims joined us at the club to tell us all about the Augusta Community and Intergenerational Art Project which she is facilitating at sessions at the Augusta Primary School art room. So on the 11th October 11 art club members spent a super morning at the school with Heather guiding us through our 'Gumnut' Artworks. Each community group who participate will be given a different subject to depict. We were very happy with our gumnut works!

On the 8th October we celebrated member Mal's special birthday, and also bid farewell to member Jenny who is moving to Mandurah, with a shared lunch and of course cakes. Mal made a little speech which was heartfelt and inspiring. Jenny will be very much missed by all of us especially her fellow Molloy pal, Trisha.

Today (20th October) we have moved furniture in the art room to make space for some of the Spring Show's exhibits. We all look forward to the Spring Show which showcases the many talents of the local community.

Please register your interest for this group at augusta_acda@yahoo.com

PAINT BY NUMBERS PUBLIC ART GROUP

The Paint By Numbers Group has identified a number of key locations and potential projects for public art around Augusta.

We have started a collaboration with the Augusta Men's Shed to create a metal sculpture for permanent display – engagement with stakeholders is ongoing.

Do you have any public art visions for Augusta?

Do you have any significant art you would like to loan to Augusta for public display?

Would you like to "donate" your fence as a blank canvas?

Is there any other way you would like to get involved?

Please contact us at augusta_acda@yahoo.com!

Mal's birthday speech with cupcake

This coming Friday we will make the short trip to the Adventure Centre courtesy of Augusta Lions where we will spend a fun day and hope for fine weather!

A very successful and interesting Critique Day on 22nd September was hosted by Peppermint Grove Beach Art Group.

Four members from Augusta travelled to join about 40 attendees from all Clubs in the association. As always, the day was a very worthwhile experience, with excellent critiquing giving valuable insight to the many fine artworks presented.

It is Augusta's turn to host next year!

Home & Beauty Self-sustain Products
Workshop at the CRC -
Thursday 21st October 2021

Emma from Margaret River Herbs created a wonderful workshop at Augusta CRC on Thursday 21st October. Participants learnt the skills of creating home & beauty products from items available from your home pantry. Guests enjoyed the knowledge and guidance of Emma who is a fully qualified naturopath, in making products such as lotion bars, coffee body scrub and dishwasher machine tablets. The CRC never smelt so good with all the herbs and essential oils.

"It was an absolute delight, and well worth it with the products we created and took home as well as the knowledge we learnt at this workshop"
