Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse

Major Restoration: March Update

Having stood since 1895, the lighthouse is now needing some care and attention to keep it operating for the next century.

The Restoration team has been busy continuing the essential tower works since the last update.

- The removal of all paint is now complete.
- Repairs to all limestone blockwork and mortar joints is complete.
- Reinstatement of the stairs and landings has begun.
- New electrical wiring is being installed.

The weather, in particular the wind, has caused some challenges, but extra skilled workers have been called in to help keep the works on schedule for completion in time for the April school holidays.

Visitors continue to enjoy access to the Lighthouse precinct and award-winning interpretive centre, along with hospitality from new café owners, Ben and Lisa.

ST ALOUARN 250 YEARS

Article written By Paul Sofilas
Images from Rosily Vineyard, Margaret River

The area around Augusta was first settled by the Wadandi people, at least forty thousand years ago.

More recently, explorers and trading ships encountered the coastline of this Southwest corner of the continent.

Vice - Admiral Count François Étienne de Rosily-Mesros

March 17th marks 250 years since the 'Gros Venture' under the command of Louis Aleno de St Alouarn, anchored out from Ledge Point in Flinders Bay. The next day the crew could not land – due to backwash from swell hitting the beach.

However, they caught lots of fish and commented on the large sharks 'as fierce as any they had encountered', that were present around the ship.

After departing late on the 18th, the ship took a few days to round Cape Leeuwin before heading towards Shark Bay, and on to Timor.

It is planned to have a couple of low-key events to remember that small part of the bigger history of the region. Such as a light breakfast at the Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse Cafe on the 18th and possibly a sundowner that evening. So, if you are interested in either event, please contact

Paul – oceans2meet@hotmail.com / 0419 940 066 to be put on a notification list. Events subject to Covid restrictions or otherwise that may apply then.

The Augusta Historical Society Inc.

The Augusta Historical Society met on Thursday 17th February for their first meeting for 2022 (January meeting was cancelled). As the mask mandate is still in place it was encouraging to have a good turn out. I believe we need to continue with our life as normally as we can and I thank you all for joining us.

After our General Meeting we enjoyed a very informative talk from our Keeper of the Memorials, Jan White. There are many sites around our area that recognise those that were here before us - the Wadandi people, at least forty thousand years ago. Some memorials like the Water Wheel are well known and others like the site of the first Government School are tucked away, but all are worth our time to visit and preserve. There are plans in place to make a new map to highlight these areas to make it easier to visit and also to recognise their significance to our story.

A number of people have put their hand up to join Jan in the care of these important memorials/markers. Helping hands are always welcome and if you would like to join us please leave your details at the museum or email: augustahistsoc@gmail.com

MARCH is the 250th Anniversary of the arrival of a French ship, the "Gros Ventre" captained by Louis Francois Marie Aleno de St Alouarn after whom the islands off Cape Leeuwin are named. We hope to have a speaker to tell this story at our March meeting. Also, as mentioned in the previous edition, the 400th Anniversary of the Leeuwin visiting our shores will be celebrated later in the year.

The Society will be represented at the Yebble locality renaming (Ellenbrook Homestead) on Friday 4th March at 10am.

Our next meeting is Thursday March 17th at 7pm. All welcome.

BUSY ENTITIES, BUSY LIONS

All Leeuwin Lions entities continued to trade strongly into February despite the school holidays finishing and car parking overflows onto the street diminishing. The shed is full and furniture, clothing and bric-a-brac have reported strong sales, the Toy Shop and Bookshop have been frantic, the Adventure Centre has remained very popular and well occupied, and all Lions and volunteers have been happy being very busy.

SAIL TRAINING ON BOARD STS LEEUWIN

The three Leeuwin Lions sponsored 'sailors' have all now completed their voyages on the STS Leeuwin and the club enjoyed the tales of their experiences on the 'high seas' at a social meeting on Monday 28th February. Leeuwin Lions have been sponsoring at least a couple of voyages each year since the inception of the program – believed to be some 30 plus years.

YOUTH FOUNDATION

As announced at the 50th Year Celebrations, to mark the 50th Anniversary Year of the Lions Club of Leeuwin, the Board decided to establish the Jim Challis Youth Foundation. A starting fund of $10,000 is to be established to assist local individuals in the Leeuwin Lions District to upgrade or renew their vocational skills and /or educational qualifications to assist them in their endeavours. Additionally to reward & encourage those who provide the services in our community.

Naming the fund after Jim is a recognition of his 50 years of service to Leeuwin Lions. Whilst being the current President, Jim has also been President upon three previous occasions, Secretary on three occasions and a Board member since inception.

Examples of Foundation support available:

- TAFE traineeships - for example Childcare Assistants
- Assistance with travel & accommodation for apprentices who have to work away to gain the work experience necessary to complete the apprenticeship

Toy Shop

- Youth encouragement & training – STS Leeuwin voyages and similar activities
- Assistance with tuition fees and textbooks etc for prequalified individuals to upgrade or gain tertiary/vocational skills upon the basis of a reimbursement as subjects are 'passed'.
- Introduction of Leeuwin Lions District Awards to recognise 'the best' of those who service our community. To be done in conjunction with other groups such as Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Augusta Community Development Association.
- Apprentice or trainee of the year
- Customer service person of the year
- 'Tradie' of the year

The procedure/process for applying for funding is to be circulated in coming weeks

CONTAINERS ROLLING IN, MORE REQUIRED

The number of containers processed in January totalled 163,800 - earning Leeuwin Lions along with donations, a total of $16,300 for the month. Sadly, there continues to be a significant number of recyclable containers still going to landfill.

Recycling some of the 163,800 containers

Whilst on the matter of recycling, Leeuwin Lions still recycles newspapers, so save them up and drop them off when taking your containers to the CDS shed.

ZONE II MEETING

Leeuwin Lions hosted the W2 District Zone II Luncheon and Meeting on the 28th January, which was well attended by clubs in the Zone. The meetings are normally held quarterly for the purpose of reporting activities and discussing and seeking resolution of issues common to all. The forum is an ideal opportunity to gain the experience of other clubs as the world around continues to change, whether it be pandemics, government legislation, or information technology. The mandatory changes required by both the Covid and relevant Work Safe Legislation that now encompasses all volunteer workforces, such as Leeuwin Lions has in the CDS Shed and all its other entities, were discussed at length. Zone Chairperson Trish Robinson was pleased with the strong contributions that Busselton, Dunsborough, Cowaramup, Margaret River, Leeuwin and the newly formed club of Vasse are making to their communities and commended the substantial financial support being given to many worthy causes.

The Lions Cancer Institute is a project of the Lions Clubs of Western Australia. Since the early 1990's LCI has been providing full body skin screening clinics throughout Western Australia, with an emphasis on screening in the remote and rural areas of the state.

From humble beginnings, the Volunteers of LCI have screened over 80,000 patients and records show that with the annual rate of referrals to a GP in the order of 27% (21,600) and lesions suspected of being life threatening at 6% (1 260). Early detection will save lives and lessen the need for invasive surgery.

LCI's screening program is supported by qualified volunteer Dermatologists, Plastic Surgeons, Dermoscopists and GP's.

Funding for LCI's screening programs and research grants is provided by donations from Lions Clubs of WA, business and the public.

The Lions Cancer Institute is raising funds to replace our two ageing screening units with one purpose-built unit. Donations can

PLANS UNDERWAY

Planning is well underway for an additional shed and a restructure of the Lions Complex to include an office, new kitchen and toilets and a members' meeting room to accommodate expanding Lions activities.

A note from the Suggestion Box by one member who felt he was being overworked in the furniture shed was for a spa and sauna to be incorporated as well.

Lions appreciate the contribution from the many volunteers who turn up each week at the Lions Shed and Container Refund Depot. It is important for all to join in and have a good time with others and, for those that want, to avail themselves of an opportunity for some fellowship at the end of the day.

For those interested in becoming a member or just attending a Lions meeting for a look at how meetings are conducted, please contact Membership Chairman Mike Walker – 0430 111 936 who will be delighted to hear from you.

In last month's column, I gave the popular vote results from the Art Club's Exhibition but at that time

I didn't have photos of Jan Gozzi's 3 china pieces which were the most popular. One of these pieces sold at the exhibition, but I have since caught up with Jan and have taken photos of the other 2 pieces. I had a chat with Jan, who is currently our only active china painter and both Jan and the Art Club are keen to find people who would like to try out china painting.

Jan Gozzi's Russian Tiles

People may associate china painting with Geraldton Wax and Leschenaultia and these popular images are very lovely, however Jan tells me that painters now incorporate more diverse subjects and techniques to their china and her 'Russian Tile' certainly illustrates this.

Jan originally joined our club in 1977 and left in 2006 to live in Esperance where she continued with china painting. Jan returned to Augusta last year and re-joined the club. Along with china painting Jan also draws and paints on paper and is extremely talented.

Jan Gozzi's Flower Plate

If anyone in the community would like to try out china painting, we would love to hear from you, the club has a selection of china pieces ready to paint, and a kiln in which to fire them.

Please call President Wendy if you are interested on 0400 023 721.

The first part of a two - week workshop presented by Sandra commenced on Friday 18th February. The subject is Acrylic paint pouring. 10 enthusiastic members participated and I can honestly say made the biggest mess in the process. My finger tips are still a fetching colour of blue. 23 small canvasses are laid out having been poured and awaiting the addition of images. The paint takes 3 days to dry. The photos show members at work and if you are interested it's worth looking at the on-line March Pelican Post to see the canvasses in colour as they are totally beautiful.

The club welcomes Margaret, Jill and Jude who are new members/prospective members.

Visitors are always welcome and our Gallery of works for sale is back following a little break. Open Wednesdays and Fridays from 10am until 2pm. Mask wearing obligatory.

The Augusta Golf Club held its Annual General Meeting on 3 February 2022. At that meeting, a new Management Committee was elected and installed. Of especial note was the retirement of two long-standing committee members, who have served our club in voluntary capacities for many years. Their committed service should not go unacknowledged. I refer to Jim Swarbrick and Nick Dornan.

Jim Swarbrick

Extracting personal details from Jim is no easy task, so, for this brief "golfing biography," I have sought information from a couple of his mates and scoured the Honour Boards at both Margaret River Golf Club (MRGC) and Augusta Golf Club (AGC).

Jim first played golf in Margaret River in the late 1970s. Like many, his first few games were disastrous, and had it not been for the support and encouragement of well-known MRGC identity, Gerry Ryan, Jim he would have given up. Clearly, though, Gerry had an eye for talent because, before too long, Jim began to win championships. Indeed, Jim's name first appears on the MRGC Honour Boards in 1980 when he was the Men's Champion, and, for the next fifteen years, or so, his name is to be found on almost every MRGC Honour Board mounted on the walls of that club.

President Jim with golfing buddy, best mate and wife, Shirley

- MRGC Men's Champion: 1980, 1981, 1983, 1984, 1986 and 1990
- MRGC Men's Foursome Champion: 1980, 1981 1984, 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 (partner L. Bedford) and 1996 (partner P. House).
- MRGC Mixed Foursomes Champions: 1982, 1986, 1990 – partnering with his lovely wife, Shirley.
- Jim was also Men's Captain of MRGC in 1986 and 1987.

After moving to Augusta, Jim again took the reins of Men's Captain, serving in that role in 2013 and 2014. Jim continued to win championship events at AGC, winning Men's Foursome events in 2017, 2020 and 2021, and the Mixed Foursomes event in 2013, 2014 and 2019. For all his athleticism and golfing skill, Jim is most highly honoured for his role as AGC President, a position he held from 2017 to 2021. During this period, he was instrumental in upgrading the pathways—the rocky trails are now smooth, bituminised corridors. He works tirelessly on the course, mowing, bagging, trimming, shaping—doing whatever is required at the time. Jim is wise, he is committed, and he is an example. Thank you, Jim.

Nick Dornan

Wearing the Green Jacket. Nick Dornan wins the 2015 Augusta Masters.

Nick tells me that his first experience of golf was going for a walk on the Old Course at St Andrews. He was eight years old and was given a club and ball to hit along the fairway. Despite his prestigious surrounds, Nick's introduction to golf was unpromising, for, following a lusty swing, he hit his sister squarely on the forehead.

That was Nick's last swing of a golf club until he tried again at his local golf course at Harefield Place near Uxbridge. He played there for four years, from the age of eighteen to twenty-two.

After migrating to Australia, Nick's life became very busy. He became the Shire President in 2002 but relaxed by making a point of playing casually at AGC. Nick officially joined the club in 2011 but did not accept a committee position until 2014. Since then, he has spent seven (almost) continuous years, serving in administrative roles:

- 2014 - Vice-President and Scroungers Captain
- 2015 - 2017 Men's Captain
- 2019 - Secretary
- 2020 – 2021 Secretary/Men's Captain

Nick's golfing highlight is undoubtedly his victory at the Augusta Masters in 2015.

Clearly, Nick has made a tremendous contribution to AGC. Put simply, the events would not have run had Nick not sat behind the glass in the office, taking names, and organising teams. And the annual events of which we are so proud would not have proceeded had Nick not written the letters, made the phone calls and sent the emails. At times, his workload was huge. We are immensely in debt to Nick, and we thank him sincerely for his dedication and effort.

The last four weeks of activities at the Augusta Yacht Club started with the Australia Day celebrations. This was the traditional "barbie and bevy" which attracted a big crowd, outdoors of course. Some of the catamarans and Mark Heyink's laser took to the water for a social sail before the festivities got into full swing.

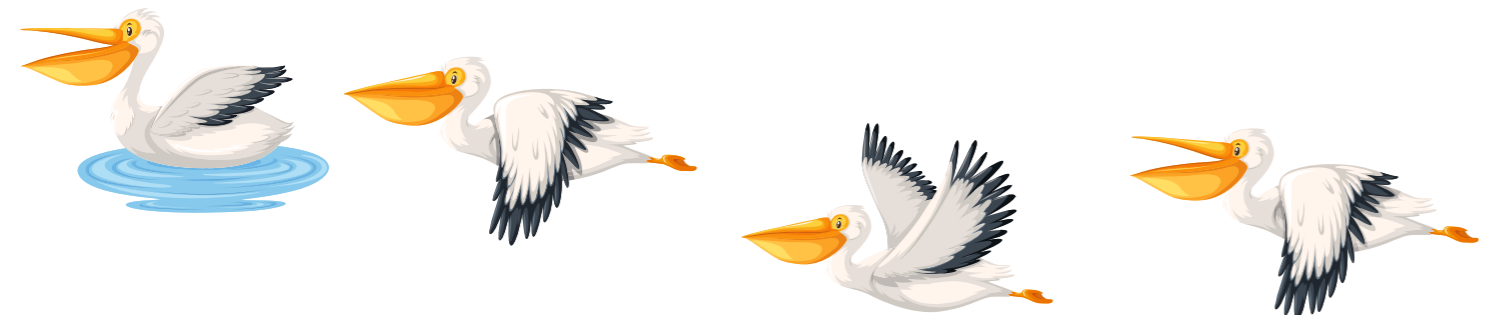

Mark and Mal

The following Sunday was blown out, the first for the season which is better than previous seasons. Sunday 6th February was also windy with gusts up to 35 knots from the west but it wasn't strong enough to stop the catamarans from completing 2 races. Mal Buzza scored a win in the first race and Cliff Rolfe taking the chocolates in the second. No monohulls completed both races.

Cliff

Then on the weekend of the 12th and 13th it was the Windrush State Championships at Safety Bay Yacht Club. 10 catamarans from Augusta Yacht Club made the trip to what was the birth place of Windrush catamaran sailing in the 70's. 24 Windrushes competed in 2 classes in wind conditions varying between 5 and 30 knots. Saturday's 2 morning races were held in perfect 15 to 18 knot winds and in the afternoon the wind increased to 30 knots so only 1 race was sailed as there were quite a few who did not venture out and some boat damage for those who did. Sunday's 3 races started in a light easterly and was completed in a light sea breeze. So after 6 races in quite varied conditions, the final results showed just how competitive our Augusta Yacht Club sailors are. The cat rigged championship was dominated by Augusta Yacht Club sailors with Mal Buzza first, Craig Saunders second and Iain Stephens third. On handicap, Ric Edwards was second and Peter Hawley third. In the super sloop championship, local sailor Cliff Rolfe won 4 out of the 6 races but had to count a did not finish (he forgot the course when in front) and finished second overall.

Herman started the weekend cuddling the "pink elephant" (an age old tradition awarded to someone who does something silly). But with Cliff losing the state title because of his forgetfulness and Peter Hawley mounting one of the rounding buoys, Herman was able to handball Ellie to Peter who has to cuddle her until next year when the States are to be held at Dunsborough Bay Yacht Club. A great time was had by all.

Apart from sailing at the Club over the next month, some of our sailors are travelling to Walpole on the March long weekend to compete in the "In The Trees Regatta".

Good luck and fair winds

Our first meeting of the New Year was the AGM, followed by the February meeting.

We had a good attendance and, as you can see in the photos, we were duly masked up.

A good turnout for the AGM

Wendy thanked the outgoing committee. We have a new Executive committee, comprising Shirley Shephard as Vice President, Vince Williams as Treasurer and Paula Higginson as Secretary. In the absence of any nominations for President Wendy Shearwood will do the job in a care-taker capacity for one month, and one month only. Hopefully by this time next month we can report a new President.

Judith Warrick, Vi Douglas, Marg Munday, Wendy Shearwood

Next month, Covid willing, we'll meet at the Dr John Williams Room, 194 Blackwood Avenue, at 1.30 pm when Kevan and Lyn Chambers from Tulips with a Difference will showcase their collection of WA grown bulbs, and we may purchase, or order, from them. Their bulbs are beautiful and always reliable - it really makes a difference growing WA bulbs. You can see their collection online at www.wabulbs.com

Leeuwin in Lego

Chris McRae, a Performing Arts teacher from Perth, has always had a fascination and love of the stories and history behind lighthouses. "The tales that come from past keepers, the engineering behind the builds and the maritime stories are so rich and full of character" he said. Chris spent his high school years in Bunbury and always loved visiting Cape Leeuwin. "It has such a unique quality being the most southern mainland lighthouse in Australia and the point where the two oceans meet" he continued. Chris travelled to Cape Leeuwin in 2020 with a group of friends in 2020 as part of Perth At Home Theatre's 'Stories from the South West' project, directing and filming the short play 'At The Lighthouse' by Perth playwright James Forte on site at Cape Leeuwin. "It was such an incredible experience to film in such an iconic location and I have been itching to get back in some capacity" he said.

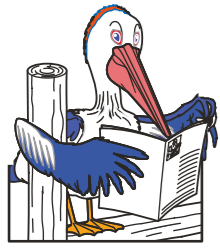

That opportunity came when Chris decided to focus on Cape Leeuwin once again, bringing in his other passion of Lego building. With many of his friends through the Perth Lego Users Group and the WA Brick Society building local landmarks, Chris decided to set to work on building the Cape Leeuwin Lighthouse and surrounding cottages in Lego form with the aim of exhibiting the build in 2022 in both Perth and the South West. "The Lego community loves telling stories and creating worlds through building" he said. "I feel the iconic Cape Leeuwin and its surrounds deserve to have its story brought to life in Lego form" he continued.

Chris is currently working on the build and it will be available to view at exhibits late in 2022. You can follow the progress of the build on Instagram @mcbricks04 and details of the exhibits will be posted as details are confirmed.

It's been great to be able to meet together again. We're working towards articles for our Easter Exhibition. The raffle prizes are done and hopefully, in these uncertain times, it will not have to be postponed.

Have you hear the word Amigurumi?

a mi guru mi

It is a Japanese word for "crocheted knitted stuffed toys" and is the Japanese art of crocheting small, stuffed yarn creatures.

The word is a compound of the Japanese ami, meaning 'crocheted' and kurumi, literally 'wrapping' as in nuigurumi (sewn) stuffed doll.

Amigurumi is essentially the same as crochet, only it refers specifically to the process of making 3D toys. Crochet uses a range of techniques, whereas amigurumi almost always involves working in the round, making spheres, which are then stuffed to form the limbs of little toys.

Where amigurumi's origins are murky, it definitely has its main roots in Japan. Some speculate that they appeared as early as dynasty periods.

The first actual amigurumi dolls appeared at the start in the 1970s. The concept sprang up alongside other kawaii (cute) trends, like chibis which means "little" versions of normal people and objects.

The bulk movement gained footing when it reached the United States in the early 2000's. It exploded into the form most people know today, resulting from the blend of Eastern and Western creative thinking. Of course, the internet then made short work of bumping it to the top of the list.

Amigurumi toys for Spinners Easter Exhibition

It has evolved and individuals, galleries, conventions and social groups all over the world centred on crafting these delightful crocheted toys. If you want to learn more, look up Amigurumi on the internet. Be careful, it is an addictive pursuit.

We meet in our club room at the Centennial Hall every Tuesday 10:30am - 4:00pm and Thursday.

The Australia Day Regatta on Saturday 29th January, held normally at the Margaret River Rowing Club, had to be changed to Augusta due to the high-water levels in the river. It was a great success.

Thanks go out to our start team & rescue boat, the ladies providing salads, looking after the catering & housekeeping, the BBQ chefs, those clearing up afterwards, the Yachties for putting together a couple of competitive crews in the men's & veterans' races, all our rowers/ coxes & spectators. Even with the initial delays, when Cliff had to change to the old fashioned 'rolling starts' due to the problems with the buoys, we actually finished exactly on time!

Rumour also has it – the Margaret River women's crew had been training at 5:30 every morning two weeks before the event, as is evident from the photo below – looks like we'll be racing for sheep stations in the future.

We've had some great feedback and favourable comments about the location, facilities, hospitality and the long table luncheon under the paper barks – well done to all. A social row from the Yacht Club to Colour Patch was organised on the following Sunday morning as the visiting skiffs were keen to explore our waterways.

"Our photographer" – Chris Bairstow has put up some great photos on the website – augustarowers.org.au – including a video of the Marg's Mug race from her drone – thanks & well done Chris.

We should plan on hosting again next year as Wallcliffe House, where the skiffs are launched at Margaret River, will be a construction site with redevelopment occurring. Already indications are that the launching of skiffs would not be welcome.

Augusta Veterans Crew ( plus 70's )

A morning community rowing day on Saturday 12th February saw the Augusta rowers hold their first 'Have A Go Row', an activity aimed at giving people in the community an opportunity to try out our locally-built skiffs.

Long Table Luncheon under the paperbarks

Bunbury Coastal Rowing Club have been in contact and are planning upon a repeat adventure in late March having already made a booking with the Lions Adventure Centre.

The decals acknowledging the sponsors is now a priority so the oars can put into service.

The building of Acorn 17 continues with all the planking now shaped & scarfed which should see the skiff take shape. There is no great haste to get this skiff in the water as those building seem to enjoy their morning tea discussions

Those interested in rowing and /or becoming involved in wooden boat building please do not hesitate to contact Bill (0400 750967) – interest from groups and organisations is most welcome – age, fitness or skill levels are not barriers to rowing these amazingly easy-to-row boats. Keep a watch on our website - - for upcoming events, check out the photo gallery on the website & Facebook, recycle your drink bottles & cans to our account – many thanks to those who already donate to our account.

After a few weeks off for shopping, visitors, festivities, families (and of course some holidays!!) the CWA Ladies had their first meeting and AGM for the year on Wednesday 2nd February. There was a lot to discuss as well as organising this year's activities. President Leanne Bamford was re-elected. Shirley Shephard was elected Vice President. Linda Zeffert was re-elected Secretary. Elected to be Treasurer was Sara Murphy. All positions were accepted.

During the year it is hoped we will be able to have a few outings. Also, it has been suggested to have a "Christmas in July" at the Hotel, which will need a lot of organising to invite other CWA Branches to participate. March is also the return of supplying morning teas for the Seniors who go on the Silver Chain Bus on Thursdays, as always it is lovely catching up over a cuppa and having the usual friendly, cheerful get together.

Pam-Margaret choosing

It was mentioned in the last edition that some CWA Ladies visited the Rosa Glen CWA Branch. The venue was at the old historic school area. The school teacher's small cottage was interesting to have a look at how one person lived in that era, being just one room. It contained a stove, cupboard, table and chair, also the bed. A tiny room off the verandah was the bathroom, making do for the washing as well!! One must remember that water would have been a very scarce commodity in those days. Oh! The lavatory, (old dunny) a tiny building made of timber with a peaked iron roof was about 20 metres away. These small outlying schools closed in the early 50's, due to the school bus, that could take the children to bigger and better schools.

The old Dunny!!

Old Teachers cottage

We all had a very enjoyable day meeting up with some long-time members, reminiscing whilst having a most delightful morning tea. All too soon it was time for us to depart and head for home with fond memories of the day. A big thank you to the Rosa Glen CWA Ladies making us so welcome.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday March 2nd at 1.30pm, come along and join us and become a member! We do have a lot of fun and always an enjoyable chat over afternoon tea.

If you are interested in hiring the CWA Hall for a function, meeting or gathering please contact us by email-cwainaugusta@gmail.com.

Now that the holidays are over, we're seeing fewer out-of-town visitors to the club but our local members are as keen as ever, so we often have all four courts in action. The weather has been mostly perfect with moderate temperatures and the wind not too extreme.

Two of our recent (well, from less than a year ago!) members are Clare and Will Dallimore. Clare first picked up a racket at age 10 and played at Dandaragan tennis club. She then played at boarding school in Perth and went on to play and work at both Sorrento Tennis Club and the State Tennis Centre. She moved to Margaret River in 2004 and in between kids she played at Margaret River Tennis Club. After holidaying here for the past 12 years her family moved to Augusta 2 years ago. Clare has 4 children and is a teacher - currently working at the local school. Her son Will is in year 10 and started tennis lessons 2 years ago and has now started coaching the younger students. He played in his first tournament last year. They enjoy playing together and being part of the Augusta Community. We are very pleased to have Clare and Will as members of our club.

Another new member is Joel Durell. Joel grew up in Walpole and played tennis as a junior at Bridgetown TC and won a few trophies there. He studied Marine Science at Murdoch, and lived in Perth for 13 years. Joel and his wife Lorna have been living in Augusta for the last year. Joel's great love is the ocean and diving, and he has the ideal job as Ranch (Diving) Manager at Rare Foods Australia (previously Ocean Grown Abalone). Welcome to Augusta, Joel and Lorna.

Quilters of Leeuwin Exhibition

By JUDITH WILTON
Images By Judith Wilton

Augusta women showcased their skills with needle and thread at the Quilters of Leeuwin Exhibition held last weekend, with over 100 quilts displayed in the Centennial Hall.

There were some amazing statistics in quilts displayed. Edie Williams has been making the quilt below, 960 hexagons with Liberty fabric, while travelling Australia in her caravan for about 10 years. Small hexagons an easy travelling project but sewing together a mammoth task.

While Judith Wilton & Lyn Leonard hand sewed three thousand two hundred individual pieces of fabric to create these amazing La Passacaglia quilts. What a difference fabric choices make!

Traditional appliqué was on display from numerous members including Penny Williams.

More modern techniques allow for machine sewing with use of bright colours as made by Wendy Wilson and Sue Air.

The gain from the exhibition was an opportunity to share quilts and quilting stories with family and friends from Perth, and all over the south west, while raising significant donations for 'River Angels' and the Royal Flying Doctor Service.

CIVIC PARK GOLF CLUB AUGUSTA (INC)

By HERMAN GERRITSEN - SECRETARY

Due to the recent strong winds the Civic Park Golf Course (Par 3) has become very popular to visitors to Augusta. Why not? If you can't go fishing, a quick round of golf may just be the next best thing. Now, with school holidays over, the next influx into town will be the "Grey Nomads."

If previous records are any indication, the course will again become popular with several visitors paying an annual membership rather than paying a separate green fee each time. This also applies to locals. You can complete a round of golf, on this course, in somewhere between an hour to an hour and a half as many times as you like, and over a year, for only $50. It becomes quite obvious for regular golfers, that an annual membership is the most economical way to go! In addition, an annual membership also entitles you to voting rights, and if you wish, to join in the 'Scroungers' competition on Wednesdays and Fridays.

The club has just held its AGM and the following office bearers were elected:

President	Ray Wakelin
V/President	Tim Sutherland
Secretary	Herman Gerritsen
Treasurer	Rosemary Gerritsen

Together with an elected committee of 6 members, they will be working and looking at ways of improving the general condition of the fairways, greens, and surrounds. At present the reticulation system is in urgent need of an overhaul.

At the AGM, members made the decision to increase the green fees to $10 as from 1st March to non-members. The main reason being that much of the work has become too difficult, and may have to be outsourced, which usually has a cost associated with it. In addition, increased fuel and insurance costs are adding to the club's costs. The club regrets making this decision but, if we want to make improvements and the club is to survive, this was a necessity.

The $10 fee is still one of the cheapest fees for golf in Australia and compares favourably with most country golf courses. So, a membership fee with the extra benefits is the way to go! Only $50. This can be paid at the Augusta Shire offices (open Tues, Wed and Thurs) by cash, or at Xtreme Sports, next to the BP service station. It can also be paid directly into the Club's bank account. Bankwest Details: Civic Park Golf Club BSB 306-116 Account 415 83 51

If using Option 3, please ensure you add your name to the bank payment & send us an email with your home address, so your Membership Card can be posted. email hr.gerritsen@yahoo.com

On a more sombre note, the club is saddened by the sudden death of Jeff Blackman, who died suddenly on 6th Feb. 2022.

Jeff was well-known around town as the "Bike Man," but was also a Past President of this club. When time permitted, Jeff spent much of his time mowing and maintaining the fairways and their surrounds. He will be sadly missed. Condolences go out to his family and friends.

In the meantime, keep golfing!

The Annual Volunteers Thank-you BBQ was held at the end of November... 1000 thanks to all our volunteers, who keep Greater Augusta ticking, to the Shire for footing the bill for the BBQ, to our Shire President, Paula Cristoffanini and Councillor David Binks. David also happily took home one of Lorraine Monahan's gorgeous sponges as a door prize winner... we swear it wasn't rigged! Thanks to local champions Hamelin Bay Wines, Augusta Butcher and Augusta Bakery for helping cater the event with a discount.

COUNCIL UPDATES: The council meeting on 9 Feb saw a review of the wards system agreed upon, and a move towards livestreaming / recording of council meetings. Note the meeting on March 9 will be held at the Augusta Chambers and may include an update on the Healthy Country Plan for the Leeuwin Lighthouse Trail.

Augusta Paint by Numbers - Public Art Group

EPHEMERAL ART WALL: Work has started on a community art project for the corner of Ellis & Blackwood which is intended to bring the community together, allow display of art with a connection to Augusta, which will change periodically and hopefully bring the community together. Gigantic thanks are extended to the owner of the property for its temporary use, and to Augusta Home Hardware and a couple of very generous locals who kindly donated paint to get the, er, rollers rolling!

PICS COMMUNITY FEATURE ARTISTS: Paint By Numbers is proudly supported by the PICS Studio, which went in to bat for the ephemeral art wall prep day on Instagram and recently hosted a workshop for the Ephemeral Art Wall project.... In line with their community vibe, Jo and Donna are seeking Expressions of Interest from the community.

"Our creative workspace is open to feature artists of various mediums (painting, jewellery, craft, materials) to actively work in the studio space with the option to display their work on our feature walls. Please come in and see us at PICS_STUDIO_AUGUSTA (75 Blackwood, crnr of Ellis St) or contact us at picoluv@hotmail.com or Ph:0435830895 to set up a time to meet and discuss the details."

SS LOOWIN MURAL: The Paint By Numbers group has landed a Shire grant to do a community mural at the ablutions block at the Ellis St Jetty precinct. We are collecting ideas to go in the mix, so email us to get involved!

PAINTED PLANTER POSTS: With generous funding from the Leeuwin Lions, and enormous support from main street businesses, we are working with local emerging artist Nakita Kitson to develop a series of 'planter posts' to brighten up the streetscape a little, and invite curiosity... Nakita will be seeking to paint local species of flora and fauna which are not necessarily well known, giving a nod to our incredible local biodiversity. Utilising repurposed timbers will give a historic element, and we hope to integrate QR codes which link to the new website being developed by the Chamber of Commerce.

PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT INFO SESSION 29 MARCH:

This year the AMR Shire will revise its Local Planning Scheme – the document which sets local rules regarding development details. Do you have any questions regarding planning and development rules? Do you know what the scheme can and cannot influence?

Now is the time to put your thinking cap on – what do you want to see or not see in Greater Augusta and importantly, in its more localised pockets?

Matt Cuthbert, AMR Shire's Manager Planning and Regulatory Services, will give an information presentation and Q&A on Tuesday 29 March.

Please send your questions and register your RSVP by Monday 14 March to augusta_acda@yahoo.com Location details will be emailed.

EXTRACTIVE INDUSTRY POLICY REVISION: Following on from a motion passed by Council last August, the Shire is revising its Extractive Industry Policy. ACDA is providing input during the drafting phase. If you have any constructive feedback, please let us know... it is anticipated the draft will be available for public consultation mid-year.

WHALE TAIL: Our collaboration with the Augusta Men's Shed to create a metal whale tail sculpture for permanent display is ticking along – engagement with the Shire for its location on the plinth in front of the Lions Park BBQ at Seine Bay is looking promising... TWO THINGS... we are seeking donations of concrete-reinforcement metal rods and mesh to help build the sculpture, and...does anyone know anyone who knows anyone who would like to sponsor the sculpture at a fair price!? Please get in touch! paintbynumbers6290@yahoo.com

Augusta Ferals

Augusta Ferals is an ACDA-Augusta Wildlife Care collaboration. We are developing a feral control programme which coordinates various stakeholders and interested community members in key land corridors, utilising a range of technology and resources to reduce feral cat and fox numbers in the area.

In consultation with DBCA and the LCDC, we will seek to approach local land owners in strategic areas with a view to extend the impact of existing baiting programmes in the Leeuwin Naturaliste and Scott River National Parks.

WILDLIFE CAMERA LIBRARY: Would you like to see what ferals are at your place, and what native animals are at risk? Contact us to loan wildlife cameras from our new library and learn how to set them up!

ARE YOU ALREADY TAKING ACTION?: Please let us know if you are already surveying / baiting / trapping / shooting on your property so we can gather current data for the area.

Please contact augusta_ferals@yahoo.com to get involved.

“Woe to you who are rich”

By STEWART MACPHERSON

In 2021 the richest adult population in the world was the Australian. Median wealth was $315,000.

Why did Jesus say “Woe to you who are rich”? I've been poor, and I didn't like it very much. I've been well-off (for a while). Jesus makes it clear that God has a special place for the poor, the hungry, the grieving, for the little person, the vulnerable person. But what's wrong with being rich? Why would Jesus say, "Woe to you who are rich"?

It has to do with the attitudes that too often go with being rich. It is all too easy for well-to-do people to feel superior; to look down their noses at the rest of the world, to hide behind locked gates and entryphones; to insulate themselves from other people's needs. Failing to care about other people. Material things can so easily distract from the spiritual.

Jesus' words stand as a warning to those of us who have enough (or more than enough). He warns us not to drift into a false sense of security, into complacency, arrogance, pride or greed.

Most of us are richer than we care to admit and we can learn from Jesus. We can turn things around. We can check to see who needs help; and we can begin helping. Some years ago, a man called William White wrote an obituary about a friend; an ordinary man who was not really ordinary at all:

“The other day, the longest funeral procession that has formed in ten years followed my friend three miles in the hot sun out to the cemetery. The reason so many people lined up behind the hearse that held the kind old man's mortality was simple; they loved him. He devoted his life to people. In a very simple way, without money or power, he gave of the gentleness of his heart to all around him.

We are apt to say that money talks, but it speaks a broken, poverty-stricken language. Hearts talk better, clearer, and with a wider intelligence. This old man with the soft voice and the kindly manners knew the language of the heart and he spoke it where it would give zest to joy and life.

He was infinitely patient and brave. He held a simple, old-fashioned faith in God and his loving-kindness. When others gave money, which was of their store, he gave prayers and hard work and an inspiring courage. He helped.

In his sphere he was a power for life. And so, when he lay down to sleep, hundreds of friends trudged out to bid him good-bye with moist eyes and with cramped throats to wish him slumber.”

If we want people to speak well of us, and to have God think well of us, let us live a life like that.

Karridale Primary School News

LISA AND THE LIONS HELP MAKE IT HAPPEN

The children of Karridale Primary School say thanks to Lisa the artist and The Lions Club of Leeuwin

Lisa Calosi created a stunning mural that celebrates some of the many birds that visit our school and our beautiful rural setting.

Lisa needed to work around extreme heat on some days, and kindly came back to our school to finish off her work in time for school opening. The colourful and striking results have created an interesting and uplifting entry and were noticed and appreciated by all.

Our school community is very thankful to the Lions Club of Leeuwin for their generous donation of funding towards this project. They also donated a load of firewood which was raffled by the Karridale P&C Association to raise further funds. Thanks to all that helped make this a reality.

OUR COUNCILLORS

Introducing our Year 6 student Councillors for 2022, Chelsea, Saxon, Rosette and Jesse. They have embraced their elevation to student leaders and since Day 2 of the term, have been listening to other students from Pre-Primary to Year 5 read in the library before school each day.

With their quiet words of guidance and encouragement, they are helping all children in the school to develop and consolidate their reading skills and in particular, develop their reading fluency. 2022 will no doubt be a busy year for our councillors.

JEFF MARSHALL RETIRES

After 29 years at Karridale Primary School as our Gardener/Handyperson, Jeff Marshall has officially retired. In recognition of such an outstanding contribution, Jeff received a card from his work colleagues and a hardware voucher, a valedictory letter from the Principal plus a certificate and a silver medallion from the Director General of Education.

Jeff's attention to the school gardens and his dedicated approach to keeping our school looking attractive and welcoming has been very much appreciated by our school community throughout those years. Wishing Jeff a relaxing and interesting retirement.

Common or not?: Borers

Borers are a hot topic

The onset of hotter weather has drawn many borer species out of the woodwork, and enquiries and photos are coming in thick and fast. Photos of insects, entry/exit holes, information about the species of tree or wood and the signs/symptoms being seen, all help us to identify what is common and what is not.

Ecologically, borers have a role to play, and their tunnels and holes left in trunks and branches make homes or hiding spots for other species. Some native borers make holes the perfect size for native bees to nest in. However, it's their damage to plants and trees, as well as timber and wooden products that make them largely unpopular, and destructive.

There is an abundance of native and established borers species in WA, but concerningly, there are many highly destructive borer species globally. The introduction of these borers into new parts of the globe can devastate streetscapes, forest ecosystems and horticultural industries, not to mention some species' impacts on timber and wood products. So, with the detection of borer activity more likely in these hotter months when borers are most active, keep your eyes peeled, and report!

New symptoms, new detection

When a dying branch fell from a backyard Maple tree, the discerning eye of an East Fremantle resident thought something looked amiss and reported the borer damage via the MyPestGuide™ Reporter app. The result? Our department is now responding to a new incursion of the exotic Polyphagous shot-hole borer (PSHB), Euwallacea fornicatus, and operations are working hard to contain and delineate the extent of this pest. For more information, see: agric.wa.gov.au/borer.

Public reporting of borer signs and symptoms are encouraged as surveillance ramps up to detect the extent of the Polyphagous shot-hole borer, and the trees affected.

Reporting

We can't all be insect identification specialists, and it's hard to know what's common and what's not, but if something isn't common or familiar to you, please report it. Make reports particularly valuable by including as much information as possible about the signs and symptoms you are seeing. Collect and hold onto samples of suspect insects whilst awaiting identification, and if taking photos, include things like a ruler or a pen in the photos so the dimensions of things can be gauged.

If borers are coming out of furniture, timber, wooden platters, bowls, or ornaments – report it, and we'll provide identification services and guidance from there.

Watch Out 2022 - Here We Come!

It's shaping up to be an even bigger year than last year for the Lower Blackwood LCDC. We have a full event schedule lined up with our popular monthly Talkin' After Hours commencing in February, plus a whole bunch of projects getting going in the first half of the year that will support you, our landholders, in your sustainable land management goals.

These include continuing projects:

Healthy Estuaries WA Program: Fencing & Revegetation Project, Soil Testing, & Dairy Care, plus the Federal Future Drought Fund: Pasture Biodiversity to Build Soil Health in the Lower Blackwood

and new projects:

State NRM: Feral Pigs Focus - Protecting the Scott Coastal Plain, & WeedWork, and the Augusta Margaret Shires EMF Regenerative Agriculture in Practice 2022 - A Whole of Landscape Approach.

We'll also be continuing to support the activities of our partners the Augusta Margaret River Clean Community Energy Group, the Margaret River Wine Association, & the Lower South Growers Group, including their current project the MLA funded 'Filling the Autumn Feed Gap'.

All very exciting & what a great way to kick off the new year! If you want to find out more about any of our projects just head to the projects page on our website at: www.lowerblackwood.com.au

No Porkies! Feral Pigs On Notice in the Scott River

Towards the end of last year we announced our success (together with our partner the Lower Blackwood Vertebrate Pest Management Group (LBVPMG)) in securing funding from the WA State Natural Resource Management Program for a three-year feral pig control program in the Scott Coastal Plain. The growing menace of pigs in the Scott River area poses a very real & serious threat to both the environment and agriculture with the project providing a necessary strategic, collaborative, multi-year control program to protect the area and achieve results.

The project consists of 6-month trapping blocks in strategic locations per year for three years supported by a monitoring program and trialling of the 'Hoggone' Feral Pig Bait Box. Key to the program is working closely with landholders in the area to ensure that pig sightings and damage are recorded to identify hot-spot areas for the field officers to focus their work.

The LCDC will be supporting the LBVPMG field officers through managing and reporting on the data collected, developing and extending supporting resources for our community, facilitating workshops and working with the landholders in the Scott Coastal Plain area to maximise the impact of the project across the region. Stay tuned for updates and progress reports on this vital program.

This project is supported through funding from the Shire of Nannup, Ent's Forestry, and the State Natural Resource Management Program, and is facilitated through a continuing partnership with the Lower Blackwood LCDC the Lower Blackwood Vertebrate Pest Management Group.

Beyond Sustainable- Meet the local farmers looking to regenerate their land for a healthier, happier future.

As part of our Regenerative Agriculture in Practice 2021 project we have been cataloguing the motivations, challenges & experiences of a number of local farmers who are incorporating regenerative farming principles into the way they run their daily operations.

Over the next few months we will be sharing some their stories with you - some are just at the beginning, others are some way down the track but regardless of where they are at, we are sure that you will find them just as interesting and inspiring as we have.
